Collection Contents

WIEHLE : : A. Louis Wiehle Papers

Alvin Louis Wiehle is a Taliesin Fellowship Apprentice (1950-1964) and architect. The collection contains the bulk of his personal and professional records from the 1950s to the mid-1980s. Later continuation of his architectural practice, including associations with Taliesin Architects and the Taliesin Fellows organization, can be found in the Wiehle-Carr Architecture Records. Approximately linear 40 feet; the collection is presently being processed. OA+D Archives Collection Number 029.

Architectural Works (1950s-2010s)

Drawings and other materials related to architectural designs done by Louis Wiehle while working in the Taliesin Fellowship (1950-1984), William L. Pereira & Associates (1965-1971, private practice (1971-1989), and in the Wiehle-Carr partnership (1992-2010s). Additional materials related to designs for interior furnishings.

Taliesin Fellowship (1950-1964)

GUGGENHEIM : : Museum Building for Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation [New York, New York] (1963) {C19}

Architectural design by Frank Lloyd Wright, architect. A. Louis Wiehle executed numerous design and working drawings for this project, including the main skylight. Original designs present in this collection include drawings for furniture, cabinetry, and decorative floor seal.
